

A pastoral letter to the Christ Presbyterian Church (PCA) family

February 4, 2006

Dear friends,

I wanted to give you another update as to the efforts undertaken over the last several months by the session regarding our church's bylaws. A draft of the Christ Presbyterian Church Bylaws (including the "Guidelines for Church Discipline") was completed and approved at our most recent session meeting. This has proven to be an arduous but worthwhile task.

The next stage involves congregational input. With that in mind, we'd like for you to take the time to read what's been prepared and give us any feedback you might have - what you like in the document, where you could see improvement, etc. We have posted a copy of the bylaw draft (as well some other vital supporting documents) on the web site and will have hard copies available at the church office as well. Please work towards completing your review by the end of this month.

Beginning next month, we will then work towards making any necessary changes and set a time for a congregational meeting. At this meeting, we will vote on the adoption of the bylaws as presented.

Thank you for your prayers and partnership in this ministry. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or any of the other elders.

Grace and peace,

Richard Schwartz
Pastor
