Quotes and Notes

"Why am I ever distrustful, fearful, or depressed? Why do I ever allow myself to grow cool, formal, and half-hearted in the service of the God who loves me so? Why do I ever allow my loyalties to be divided, so that God has not all my heart?...Could an observer learn from the quality and degree of love that I show others - my wife? my husband? my family? my neighbors? people at church? people at work? - anything at all about the greatness of God's love to me?"

-J.I. Packer (1926-2020), Knowing God

"If depth of love is measured by the value of its gift, then God's love could not be greater, for his love-gift is his most precious possession."

-Bruce Milne, The Message of John

"The greater the love of God that the saints possess, the more they endure all things for him."

-Augustine (354-430), Patience

"We cannot truly love God without loving one another. To recognize that there is someone I do not love is to say to God, 'I do not love you enough to love that person.' This is not to deny the reality of spiritual struggle in loving a particular person, because it often exists. I am referring to the attitude of not even wanting to love the person, of being content to allow a lack of love for someone to reside in my heart unchecked and unchallenged."

-Jerry Bridges (1929-2016), The Fruitful Life

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
