Quotes

"What are we to make of Jesus Christ?" This is a question, which has, in a sense, a frantically comic side. For the real question is not what are we to make of Christ, but what is He to make of us? The picture of a fly sitting deciding what it is going to make of an elephant has comic elements about it."

- C. S. Lewis (1898-1963)

"What Are We to Make of Jesus Christ?"

"As God's Messiah, Jesus is the Son of God, the Son of Man, and Lord. As such, he displays great humility as well as power and authority. He possesses power over natural forces, demons, and sickness. Jesus interprets the Torah authoritatively. he is the inaugurator of the eternal kingdom of God. The consequence of this reality for discipleship cannot be overrated. No less person than God himself calls us to follow him."

- Hans Bayer

A Theology of Mark

"As you wrestle with what it means to be a disciple of Jesus, the first thing to consider is that behind our thoughts and actions there is a mysterious working of God...An authentic disciple is not just inspired by Jesus; he or she is transformed by Jesus. Those first disciples encountered the supernatural power of Jesus in their souls even as they heard the words of Jesus' call in their ears. No wonder they were compelled to leave whatever they're doing to follow!"

- Stephen Smallman

The Walk

"What is effectual calling?"

Effectual calling is a work of God's Spirit whereby, convincing us of our sin and misery, enlightening our minds in the knowledge of Christ, and renewing our wills, He doth persuade and enable us to embrace Jesus Christ, freely offered to us in the Gospel."

- Westminster Shorter Catechism (1647), Question XXXI

"I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest; lay down, O weary one, lay down your head upon my breast." I came to Jesus as I was, so weary, worn, and sad; I found in him a resting place, and he has made me glad."

- Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

"I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"
