Quotes and Notes

"Neither I nor any other preacher can see into your hearts...but God is looking, for nothing can be hidden from him. Do not deceive yourselves by coming eagerly to hear the Word and then failing to do it. If it is a good thing to hear, it is a much better thing to do. If you do not hear, you cannot do, and therefore you will build nothing. But if you hear and do not do, then what you are building will be a ruin."

- Augustine (354-430), Sermons 179.7-8

"True faith manifests itself publicly and socially. If someone questions the public display of religion, James says, in effect: 'Does the show of religion frighten you? A religion that never shows itself public frightens me. Intellectual theology, hidden faith, and knowledge that never drive action alarm me. Give me something visible. Prove your faith is real by doing the word.'

- Dan Doriani, James

"His words are so sharp, so 'black and white', that he leaves no middle ground for a 'moderate' religion, or a spirit of self-excuse. It is possible for us to assume that we are 'religious' when we are not; to profess and practice a vain religion or one which (whatever it may mean to us) is impure and defiled in the estimation of the Father. We need to examine ourselves; we need to know, we must be sure. A thing as potent as the new birth, if it has taken place, cannot be hidden; it cannot fail to make its presence felt. To have the life of God in us and to remain unchanged is unthinkable."

- J.A. Motyer, The Message of James
