Quotes and Notes

"All you need is love. Love, love is all you need."

- John Lennon and Paul McCartney, "Magical Mystery Tour"

"In our society, love is usually spoken of in passive terms. That is, love is something that happens to us over which we have no control. We 'fall' in love. We speak this way because we associate love with a particular feeling or emotion. Such emotion cannot be produced by pushing a button or by a conscious act of the will. We do not 'decide' to fall in love with someone. The Bible, however, speaks of love in far more active terms..."

- R. C. Sproul (1939-2017), Essential Truths of the Christian Faith

"Love is a principle of action rather than of emotion. It is a purpose of honoring and benefiting the other party. It is a matter of doing things for people out of compassion for their need, whether or not we feel personal affection for them. It is by their active love to one another that Jesus' disciples are to be recognized."

- J. I. Packer (1926-2020), Concise Theology

"We cannot truly love God without loving one another. To recognize that there is someone I do not love is to say to God, 'I do not love you enough to love that person.' This is not to deny the reality of spiritual struggle in loving a particular person, because it often exists. I am referring to the attitude of not even wanting to love the person, of being content to allow a lack of love for someone to reside in my heart unchecked and unchallenged."

- Jerry Bridges (1929-2016), The Fruitful Life

"Love is the very head of religion, and someone who has no head is dead."

- Abrosiaster (c.366-384), Commentary on Paul's Epistles -Dan Doriani, James
