Quotes and Notes

"It is a point worthy of special notice, that the welfare of the Church is inseparably connected with the righteousness of God. The Prophet, also, wisely teaches us that the reason why the enemies of the Church did not prevail, was because God brought to nothing their enterprises, and did not suffer them to go beyond what he had determined in his own mind."

-John Calvin (1509-1564), Commentary on the Psalms

"Sire, it is the lot of the Church of God to endure blows and not to inflict them. But may it please you to remember that the Church is an anvil that has worn out many hammers."

-Theodore Beza (1509-1605) to King Henry of Navarre (1553-1610)

"The reason why our childhoods were one enthusiasm after another was that we hadn't yet found an organizing center for our lives and a goal that would demand our all and our best. The Christian faith is the discovery of that center in the righteous God. Christian discipleship is a decision to walk in his ways, steadily and firmly, and then finding that the way integrates all our interests, passions and gifts, our human needs and our eternal aspirations. It is the way of life we were created for. There are endless challenges in it to keep us on the growing edge of faith; there is always a righteous God with us to make it possible for us to persevere."

-Eugene Peterson (1932-2018), A Long Obedience

"Lord, they came with 'swords and clubs' (Matthew 26:47) and flogged you. 'With clubs and staves they sought you, like a thief, you who are the Way, the true relief; Most true to those, who are your greatest grief.' Thank you for being true to me in that hour and healing me with your stripes. Amen."

-Tim and Kathy Keller, The Songs of Jesus
