Quotes and Notes

"This affirmation of Jesus is one of the greatest philosophical utterances of all time. He did not say that He knew the way, the truth, and the life, nor that He taught them. He did not make Himself the exponent of a new system; He declared Himself to be the final key to all mysteries."

- Merrill Tenney (1927-1982)

John: The Gospel of Belief

"It is no more narrow to claim that one religion is right than to claim that one way to think about all religions (namely that all are equal) is right. We are all exclusive in our beliefs about religion, but in different ways."

- Tim Keller

The Reason for God

"We are to believe Jesus. We are to believe what Jesus taught about the way that he is God, the Father is God, and he is in the Father and the Father is in him, and yet he is not the Father and the Father is not Jesus. We are to believe the Trinity. If rationalistic materialists or faithful adherents of other religions mock us, we must find what Jesus says more compelling than their logic or dogma. We gladly embrace the reproach of Christ and rejoice in the knowledge of the truth, waiting for his return by doing the works he has done and offering the prayers he has invited."

- James M. Hamilton Jr. and Brian J. Vickers

John-Acts

"If, then, this claim is true, two conclusions follow. First, we are deceiving ourselves if we think that we can come to God any other way than through Jesus. What is more, no other way will supplement or add to Jesus as the way. Second, if we are already following Jesus, we are called, in John's terms, to be witnesses to the truth and life found in Jesus."

- Walter C. Kaiser Jr. et al.

The Hard Sayings of the Bible

"Jesus alone is the way to God, but he is the way for all, and so whatever the religious background of an individual, or lack of religion, Jesus in his grace welcomes every one of them to the Father if they will come through him. For them too he is ready to prepare a place in the Father's house."

- Bruce Milne
