Notes

Quotes

“Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ willed the entire life of believers to be one of repentance.”

- Martin Luther (1483-1546), First of the 95 Theses

“Now what was the sort of “hole” man had got himself into? He had tried to set up on his own, to behave as if he belonged to himself. In other words, fallen man is not simply an imperfect creature who needs improvement: he is a rebel who must lay down his arms. Laying down your arms, surrendering, saying you are sorry, realizing that you have been on the wrong track and getting ready to start life over again from the ground floor — that is the only way out of a “hole.” This process of surrender — this movement full speed astern — is what Christians call repentance. Now repentance is no fun at all. It is something much harder than merely eating humble pie. It means unlearning all the self-conceit and self-will that we have been training ourselves into for thousands of years. It means killing part of yourself, undergoing a kind of death”

- C. S. Lewis (1898-1963), Mere Christianity

“We must stop parading around as a shell of a person, living as those that T.S. Eliot called “hollow men.” Ask the Holy Spirit to make you willing to be searched by God (Psalm 139:23-24). And in turn, you will realize you are truly known by him. Do not expect the process of searching to be always painless and pleasant. No, hardly. But you will begin to have the joy of a clear conscience and a deepening fellowship with Christ as you realize He is unafraid of what He exposes, willing to heal, awaiting your return to Him. As you learn to thirst after Christ and drink of Him, you will find the living waters of the Holy Spirit flowing through you (John 7:37-39). No longer will you be the shiny appearance of something good, but you will be really living—and from you waters will overflow into others’ lives.”

- C. John “Jack” Miller (1928-1996),
Repentance: A Daring Call to Real Surrender

“God give me a deep humility and a burning love, a well-guided zeal and a single eye, and then let men and devils do their worst!”

- George Whitefield (1714-1770),
letter to a friend - January 9, 1738
