Quotes and Notes

"Not what a man is in himself as a Christian, his spirituality and piety, constitutes the basis of our community. What determines our brotherhood is what that man is by reason of Christ. Our community with one another consists solely in what Christ has done to both of us."

-Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945), Life Together

"Whether we like it or not, the moment we confess Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, that is from the time we become Christian, we are at the same time a member of the Christian church...even if we do not permit our name to be placed on a church roll, even if we refuse to identify ourselves with a particular congregation and share responsibilities with them, even if we absent ourselves from the worship of a congregation. Our membership in the church is a corollary of our faith in Christ. We can no more be a Christian and have nothing to do with the church that we can be a person and not be in a family. Membership in the church is a basic spiritual fact for those who confess Christ as Lord. It is not an option for those Christians who happen, by nature, to be more gregarious than others. It is part of the fabric of redemption."

-Eugene Peterson, A Long Obedience in the Same Direction

"Unity is more than a key to internal peace. It is also an essential element of your Christian witness."

-Ken Sande, The Peacemaker

"(The Holy Spirit) makes the attributes of God as revealed in the Gospel and manifested in Christ delightful objects of contemplation. He makes the soul long after God and Christ - after Their presence and communion, acquaintance with Them and conformity to Them; and to live to please and honor Them is the spirit that quells contentions among men. He gives a spirit of peace and goodwill. He excites acts of outward kindness and earnest desires for the salvation of souls. He causes a delight in those who appear as the children of God and followers of Christ. When a spirit operates after this manner among people, there is the highest kind of evidence of the influence of a true and divine Spirit."

-Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758), The Distinguishing Marks of a Work of the Spirit of God

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
