Order of Worship	Notes	Quotes
Prelude	Introduction:	Merciful Lord, the comforter and teacher of your faithful people, increase in your church the desires which you have given, and confirm the hearts of those who hope in you by enabling them to understand the depth of your promises, that all your adopted children may even now behold, with the eyes of faith, and patiently wait for, the light which as yet you do not openly manifest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. - Ambrose (d. 397)
*Call to Worship Psalm 65:1-4	I. The Danger of Wealth
*Prayer of Approach	A) The effect of money
*Songs of Praise Joyful Joyful We Adore Thee They'll Know We Are Christians	B) Our access to the kingdom	"For he who for the sake of Christ's name distances himself from his particular beloved father or mother or child and gives himself over to the purest love of all who serve Christ, will receive a hundred times the measure of brothers and kinfolk. Instead of but one he will begin to have so many fathers and brothers bound to him by a still more fervent and admirable affection. That this is so you can prove by your own experience, since you have each left but one father and mother and home, and as you have done so you have gained without any effort or care countless fathers and mothers and brothers, as well as houses and land and most faithful servants, in any part of the world to which you go, who receive you as their own family, and welcome, and respect and take care of you with the utmost attention." - John Cassian (c.360-c.435) Conference 3.24.26

Sermon Mark 10:23-31 "Clear Warnings"	Conclusion:	So between the death of Christ and the Last Day it is only by gracious anticipation of the last things that Christians are privileged to live in invisible fellowship with other Christians. It is by the grace of God that a congregation is permitted to gather visibly in this world to share God's Word and sacrament. Not all Christians receive this blessing. The imprisoned, the sick, the scattered lonely, the proclaimers of the Gospel in heathen lands stand alone. They know that visible fellowship is a blessing. - Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945) Life Together
Prayer of Response
Offerings Malachi 3:8-9
*Song of Response Oh How Good It Is
