Quotes and Notes

"Lord, you would have more friends if you treated the ones you had a little better."

- St. Teresa of Avila (1515-1582)

"Many people I know fall into one of two camps when walking through suffering: anger or denial. Some people are so filled with anger at God that they live in a self-made prison of despair and bitterness for the rest of their lives. Their pain gives rise to rage. And their spiritual life is never the same. Sometimes it even results in a complete rejection of Christianity as pain paves the way for unbelief."

"Still others seem to think that godliness means a new form of stoicism. They try to project an air of contentment that feels like denial. 'Everything's fine,' they say. But you know it isn't. As I've dealt with many people in pain, I've often had to coax them off the cliff of their anger or out of the cave of hiding their honest struggles."

"Biblical lament offers an alternative. Through godly complaint we are able to express our disappointment and move toward a resolution. We complain on the basis of our belief in who God is and what he can do."

-Mark Vroegop, Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy

"Be not deceived, Wormwood, our cause is never more in jeopardy than when a human, no longer desiring but still intending to do our Enemy's will, looks round upon a universe in which every trace of Him seems to have vanished, and asks why he has been forsaken, and still obeys."

-C. S. Lewis (1898-1963), The Screwtape Letters

"Lord, keep me from being either naive about human evil, self-righteous about it, or cynical before it. Don't let me ever get used to injustice or, worse, become complicit in it. That takes constant vigilance and reflection about how I am living. Keep me loving what you love and hating what you hate. Amen."

-Tim and Kathy Keller, The Songs of Jesus
