Quotes and Notes

"Out of my bondage, sorrow and night,
Jesus, I come, Jesus, I come;
Into Thy freedom, gladness and light,
Jesus, I come to Thee.

Out of my sickness into Thy health,
Out of my want and into Thy wealth,
Out of my sin and into Thyself,
Jesus, I come to Thee."

-William T. Sleeper (1819-1904), "Out of My Bondage, Sorrow, and Night"

"If what God makes reveals who He is, and history is one of the things God has made, then history should help us see God. And it does. Just like God can be seen in oceans and mountains and tomatoes, He can also be seen in how nations rise or how wars are fought or how great leaders change the world. History really is 'His story,' and this means that knowing history in a biblical light is a way of getting to know God and how He works."

-Stephen Mansfield, More Than Dates and Dead People

"Joy is not a requirement of Christian discipleship, it is a consequence. It is not what we have to acquire in order to experience life in Christ; it is what comes to us when we are walking in the way of faith and obedience.

"We come to God (and to a revelation of God's ways) because none of us have it within ourselves, except momentarily, to be joyous. Joy is a product of abundance; it is the overflow of vitality. It is life working together harmoniously. It is exuberance. Inadequate sinners as we are, none of us can manage that for very long."

-Eugene Peterson (1932-2018), A Long Obedience in the Same Direction

"Miracles of the past (the psalm) bids us treat as measures of the future; dry places as potential rivers; hard toil and good seed as the certain prelude to harvest."

-Derek Kidner, Psalms 73-150

"Lord, I am praying for my church, my country, and several people I love—that they will be spiritually empowered and renewed. Help me to rest in your timing, knowing that my tears in prayer are like seeds that will come to fruition in the lives of those I care for. Amen."

-Tim and Kathy Keller, The Songs of Jesus

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
