Quotes and Notes

I got me flowers to straw thy way;
I got me boughs off many a tree:
But thou wast up by break of day,
And brought'st thy sweets along with thee.

The Sunne arising in the East,
Though he give light, & th' East perfume;
If they should offer to contest
With thy arising, they presume.

Can there be any day but this,
Though many sunnes to shine endeavour?
We count three hundred, but we misse:
There is but one, and that one ever.

- George Herbert (1593-1633), "Easter"

"If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said; if he didn't rise from the dead, then why worry about any of what he said? The issue on which everything hangs is not whether or not you like his teaching but whether or not he rose from the dead."

- Tim Keller, The Reason for God

"Christ Jesus lay in death's strong bands for our offenses given;
but now at God's right hand he stands
and brings us life from heaven.
Therefore let us joyful be and sing to God right thankfully loud songs of alleluia! Alleluia!"

- Martin Luther (1483-1546), Christ Jesus Lay in Death's Strong Bands

"The New Testament writers speak as if Christ's achievement in rising from the dead was the first event of its kind in the whole history of the universe. He is the 'first fruits,' the pioneer of life,' He has forced open a door that has been locked since the death of the first man. He has met, fought, and beaten the King of Death. Everything is different because He has done so."

- C. S. Lewis (1898-1963), The Joyful Christian

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
the victory of life is won;
the song of triumph has begun. Alleluia!
The powers of death have done their worst,
but Christ their legions has dispersed.
Let shouts of holy joy outburst. Alleluia!

- Author unknown (17th century)
