Quotes and Notes

“I will remember the deeds of the Lord. What the Psalmist here means is, that the wonderful power of God which he has always put forth for the preservation and salvation of his servants, provided we duly reflect upon it, is sufficient to enable us to overcome all sorrows. Let us learn from this, that, although sometimes the remembrance of the works of God may bring us less comfort than we would desire, and our circumstances would require, we must nevertheless strive, that the weariness produced by grief may not break our courage. This is deserving of our most careful attention. In the time of sorrow, we are always desirous of finding some remedy to mitigate its bitterness; but the only way by which this can be done is, to cast our cares upon God.”

-John Calvin (1509-1564), Commentary on the Psalms

“Lament opens a door and shows you a path toward trust.

Heartfelt cries of lament are often brief or messy. They might feel a bit forced or uncomfortable. But keep talking to God. Don’t allow your fear, your despair, or your track record of silence to cut off the flow of grace. Your pain can be a path toward God if you’ll allow lament to be your new language.

If you don’t have the words, read one of the psalms of lament out loud. Linger over it. Let it open your heart. Let lament do its work in your life. Allow it to lead you to other aspects of this sacred song of sorrow. But whatever you do—don’t stop talking to God. Keep wrestling. Keep struggling. Keep praying.”

-Mark Vroegop, Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy

“Lord, your disciples asked you to teach them to pray—but I also ask you to teach me how to meditate on your Word. Give me the patience and habits of mind that can mark and notice, savor and relish, and inwardly digest your words. Let them dwell in me richly. Amen.”

-Tim and Kathy Keller, The Songs of Jesus

We are really glad you could worship with us this week. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.

For next week: Psalm 10

Immortal, Invisible

Immortal invisible God only wise
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes
Most holy most glorious the Ancient of Days
Almighty victorious Your great Name we praise

Unresting unchanging and silent as light
Not wanting or wasting You rule us in might
Your Justice like mountains high soaring above
Your Clouds which are fountains of goodness and love

Most holy most glorious the Ancient of Days
Almighty victorious Your great Name we praise

All life comes from You Lord to both great and small
In all life You live Lord the true life of all
We blossom and flourish but quickly grow frail
We wither and perish but You never fail

Great Father of Glory pure Father of Light
Your angels adore You all veiling their sight
All praise we will render oh Father of Grace
Till one day in splendor we see face to face

Good to Me

I put all my hope
In the truth of Your promise
And I steady my heart
On the ground of Your goodness
When I'm bowed down with sorrow
I will lift up Your name
And the foxes in the vineyard
Will not steal my joy

(Because/Yes You are) You are good to me good to me
You are good to me good to me
You are good to me

And I lift my eyes
To the hills where my help is found
And Your voice fills the night
Raise my head up to hear the sound
And when fires burn all around me
I will praise You my God
And the foxes in the vineyard
Will not steal my joy

Your goodness and mercy
Shall follow me all my life
I trust in Your promise
Yeah Your goodness and mercy
Will follow me all my life
I trust in Your promise
Yeah Your goodness and mercy
Shall follow me oh all my life
I will trust in Your promise

You are good to me good to me
You are good to me good to me
You are good to me
(Yeah and)

You are good to me good to me
You are good to me good to me
You are good to me
