Quotes and Notes

"The Christian life is not a quiet escape to a garden where we can walk and talk uninterruptedly with our Lord; not a fantasy trip to a heavenly city where we can compare our blue ribbons and gold medals with others who have made it to the winners' circle...The Christian life is going to God. In going to God Christians travel the same ground that everyone else walks on, breathe the same air, drink the same water, shop in the same stores, read the same newspapers, are citizens under the same governments, pay the same prices for groceries and gasoline, fear the same dangers, are subject to the same pressures, get the same distresses, are buried in the same ground.

"The difference is that each step we walk, each breath we breathe, we know we are preserved by God, we know we are accompanied by God, we know we are ruled by God, and therefore no matter what doubts we endure or what accidents we experience, the Lord will preserve us from evil, he will keep our life."

- Eugene Peterson (1932-2018), A Long Obedience in the Same Direction

"In this passage...God is exhibited to the faithful as their guardian, that they may rest assured with assured confidence on his providence...Never will the hearts of men be led in good earnest to call upon God, until a persuasion of the truth of this guardianship is firmly fixed in their minds."

- John Calvin (1509-1564), Commentary on the Psalms

"Lord, my life is filled with pressures that are like the sun beating down and draining me of all strength. But I have known times when your smile, sensed in prayer, was like cool shade or like a refreshing breeze to my heart. Give me the grace to know you more as my shade and my help. Amen."

- Tim and Kathy Keller, The Songs of Jesus
