Quotes and Notes

"Jesus underwent two trials, one before the Jews and one before the Romans. He was declared guilty in both, though he had done nothing wrong. In the Jewish trial there is a dramatic antithesis between the Jewish leaders with their power, their self-righteousness, their self-deceptions arising from the profound challenge to their own interests posed by Jesus—and a single, silent, 'false' prophet without position, prestige, supporters or any visible evidence of God's help. The heart of this Jewish trial is the person of the accused. It is not what he has done but who he is that is the issue."

- Michael Green, The Message of Matthew

"Crises have a way of revealing our character. In the midst of a trial, we sometimes learn things about ourselves that we would rather not know. At other times we see friends really rise to the occasion in the midst of trial. Jesus' character shines through in this moment of crisis."

- J. Ligon Duncan III, "Betrayed, Denied, Deserted"

"There are two or three thoughts that come to my mind when I think that these wicked men did actually spit in Christ's face - in that face which is the light of heaven, the joy of angels, the bliss of saints, and the very brightness of the Father's glory. This spitting shows us, first, how far sin will go. If we want proof of the depravity of the heart of man, I will not point you to the stewards of Sodom and Gomorrah, nor will I take you to the places where blood is shed in streams by wretches like to Herod and men of that sort. No, the clearest proof that man is utterly fallen, and that the natural heart is enmity against God, is seen in the fact that they did spit in Christ's face, did falsely accuse him, and condemn him, and lead him out as a malefactor, and hang him up as a felon that he might die upon the cross."

- Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892), "Then Did They Spit in His Face"

"We can stand firm in Jesus because he loved us and gave himself for us. He planned good for us - eternal life, spiritual life we can enjoy, beginning now. If the Father has given us his Son, if the Son has given us his life, surely we can trust him and stand firm in that. Until then, the Spirit of Christ helps us remain loyal to him in all the trials of life."

- Dan Doriani, Matthew

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
