Quotes and Notes

"The heaviest obligation lying upon the Christian Church today is to purify and elevate her concept of God until it is one more worthy of Him—and of her. In all her prayers and labors this should have first place. We do the greatest service to the next generation of Christians by passing on to them undimmed and undiminished that noble concept of God which we received from our Hebrew and Christian fathers of generations past. This will prove of greater value to them than anything that art or science can devise."

- A. W. Tozer (1897-1963), Knowledge of the Holy

"Q. 7. What is God?"

A. God is a Spirit, in and of himself infinite in being, glory, blessedness, and perfection; all-sufficient, eternal, unchangeable, incomprehensible, every where present, almighty, knowing all things, most wise, most holy, most just, most merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth."

- Westminster Larger Catechism (1647)

"This is indeed a mystery! Let us not then expose this mystery. Let us not lay it forth everywhere, but let us live in a manner worthy of the mystery. They to whom a mystery is entrusted are great persons. We account it a mark of favor, if a king entrusts a secret to us. But God has committed His mystery to us, yet are we ungrateful to our Benefactor, as if we had not received the greatest benefits. Our insensibility to such a kindness should strike us with horror."

- John Chrysostom (c.347-407)

"If then there were nothing in religion above the comprehension of man, it would afford a strong presumption, that our religion was not from heaven: for why should it be revealed, if man could have devised it without a revelation? But the inspired writers represent the Gospel as 'the wisdom of God in a mystery,' as 'a mystery hid from ages,' and 'kept secret from the foundation of the world:' they speak of many of its fundamental doctrines as a mystery, a great mystery, a gloriously rich mystery; and of its ministers as 'stewards of the mysteries of God.' In the words before us, many of the principal events, relating to Christ, and the establishment of his religion in the world, are enumerated, and confessedly declared to be a 'great mystery.' Let us then contemplate them in their order, and enter with deepest reverence into the investigation of them."

- Charles Simeon (1759-1836), Horae Homileticae, vol. 18

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
