Quotes and Notes

"The new is in the old concealed; the old is in the new revealed."
- Augustine of Hippo, (354-430),
On the Spirit and the Letter

"What is faith in Jesus Christ? Faith in Jesus Christ is a saving grace, whereby we receive and rest upon him alone for salvation, as he is offered to us in the gospel."
- Westminster Shorter Catechism (Q:86), 1647

"Jesus provides a bread that leads to eternal life. But Jesus doesn't just provide this bread; he is this bread—the Bread of Life. This is the first of several "I am" statements by Jesus throughout John's Gospel—each of which are reminiscent of the God who revealed his name to Moses as "I AM" (Ex. 3:14). "How can we acquire this life-giving bread? The only "work" that guarantees the possession of this redemptive manna is to believe in Jesus (John 6:29). The gospel sabotages any notion of legalism or performance-based acceptability with God. The only thing we bring to Jesus is our need. All we offer is the admission that we have nothing to offer.

"Tragically, just as God's people grumbled over the provision of the first manna, so now, as he offered the eschatological bread from heaven, some in the crowd did the same (Num. 11:1-15; John 6:43). Oh, the patience and forbearance of our God!"
- Gospel Transformation Bible (John 6:22-59)

"At every point Jesus is better than what typified him in the OT, not least in the way that he is the bread that gives eternal life to those who eat. There is nothing we need Jesus to give us more than what he provides: himself. There is nothing more precious than what Jesus gives us: himself. There is nothing more able to save than what Jesus gives us: himself. There is nothing more satisfying than what Jesus gives us: himself. He is the Bread of Life. He has life in himself. By eating his flesh and drinking his blood, we abide in him. The Father gave life to Jesus, and he gives life to us.

Are we prepared to believe the claims Jesus makes? Are we so impressed by what Jesus has done that we are prepared to believe whatever he says? Are we prepared to stay with Jesus no matter how he offends the people of our culture? Do we recognize that Jesus is the Holy One of God? Jesus is the one with the words of eternal life, and there is no one else who can help us. Let us praise God, because he is the one who gave us to Jesus, drew us to Jesus, and gave us life by the Spirit through the words of Jesus."

- James M. Hamilton Jr. and Brian J. Vickers,
ESV Expository Commentary (Luke-Acts)
