Quotes and Notes

"When Scripture calls God, or individual persons of the Godhead, 'holy' (as it often does: Lev. 11:44-45; Josh. 24:19; Isa. 2:2; Ps. 99:9; Isa. 1:4; 6:3; 41:14, 16, 20; 57:15; Ezek. 39:7; Amos 4:2; John 17:11; Acts 5:3-4, 32; Rev. 15:4), the word signifies everything about God that sets him apart from us and makes him an object of awe, adoration, and dread to us. It covers all aspects of his transcendent greatness and moral perfection and thus is an attribute of all his attributes, pointing to the 'Godness' of God at every point. Every facet of God's nature and every aspect of his character may properly be spoken of as holy, just because it is his. The core of the concept, however, is God's purity, which cannot tolerate any form of sin (Hab. 1:13) and thus calls sinners to constant self-abasement in his presence (Isa. 6:5)."

- J. I. Packer (1926-2020), Concise Theology

"Sin can be pictured as an archer releasing an arrow from his bow and missing the target. It is not, of course, that failure to hit the bull's-eye in target shooting is a grave moral matter. Rather, the simplest biblical definition of sin is "to miss the mark." In biblical terms, the mark that is missed is not a target filled with straw; it is the mark or "norm" of God's law. God's law expresses His own righteousness and is the ultimate standard for our behavior. When we miss achieving this standard, we sin...The Bible takes sin seriously because it takes God seriously and it takes human beings seriously. When we sin against God, we do violence to His holiness. When we sin against our neighbor, we violate his or her humanity."

R. C. Sproul (1939-2017), Essential Truths of the Christian Faith

"What is sin?"

Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of, the law of God."

- Westminster Shorter Catechism (1647), Question 14

"God hates sin not just because it violates his law but, more substantively, because it violates shalom, because it breaks the peace, because it interferes with the way things are supposed to be."

- Cornelius Plantinga, Not the Way It's Supposed to Be: A Breviary of Sin

"In short, breaking these laws amounted to serious acts of treason against the covenant King and his covenant people, and were to be dealt with swiftly and seriously, not only because this was the appropriate response to treason against a king and his kingdom, but also for the sake of Israel and the world."

- Jay Sklar, Leviticus
