Conclusion:

Quotes and Notes

"Standing at the portal of the opening year,
Words of comfort meet us, hushing every fear;
Spoken through the silence by our Father's voice,
Tender, strong and faithful, making us rejoice.

Refrain:

Onward then, and fear not,
Children of the day;
For His Word shall never,
Never pass away.

For the year before us, O what rich supplies!
For the poor and needy living streams shall rise;
For the sad and sinful shall His grace abound;
For the faint and feeble perfect strength be found. (Refrain)

He will never fail us, He will not forsake;
His eternal cov'nant He will never break.
Resting on His promise, what have we to fear?
God is all-sufficient for the coming year. (Refrain)"
-Frances R. Havergal (1836-1879), "Standing at the Portal"

"But notice what this forgiveness is to produce.
Those who bask in God's merciful forgiveness are to fear God. That is, those redeemed by grace walk in his ways with joyous reverence and a determination to turn from evil. They are marked by waiting tirelessly and expectantly on the Lord, and they place their hope in God and in him alone. What sinners we are, and what grace God has shown—ultimately and lavishly expressed in Christ. How his followers should be marked, then,
by faithful lives of trust and obedience."

-The ESV Gospel Transformation Bible (Psalm 130)

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
