Quotes and Notes

"We thank Thee, our Father, for the life and knowledge which Thou madest known to us through Jesus. Thy Servant; to Thee be the glory for ever. Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills, and was gathered together and became one, so let Thy Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into Thy kingdom; for Thine is the glory and the power through Jesus Christ for ever."

- Didache (1st c.), Eucharist prayer

"Jesus prays that we might be one. We live in such an individualistic culture that this does not seem of particular importance to us. Our goals...are vivid personal feelings and personal success; but to Jesus our oneness is of much greater significance. Yet this is problematic for us, alien to the way our culture shapes us to think. So as soon as we raise the subject of unity, Christians seem to feel the need to make qualifications, rather than to wrestle with what Jesus has to say to us about being one with fellow believers. We try to identify the people with whom we don't need to be one, rather than getting on with the calling to be one...We need to submissively sit at Jesus' feet and listen to his heart for unity among us."

- Jerram Barrs, The Heart of Prayer

"The truth of the gospel, announced without the demonstration of the power of the gospel in transformed and loving lives, is arid. It may be beautiful in the way that the badlands can be beautiful; but not much grows there."

- D. A. Carson, The Farewell Discourse and Final Prayer of Jesus

"O God of unchangeable power and eternal light, look favorably on thy whole church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; and by the tranquil operation of thy perpetual providence, carry out the work of human salvation; let the whole world feel and see that things which were cast down are being raised up, that those which had grown old are being made new and that all things are returning to perfection; through him from whom they took their origin, even Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen."

- The Gelasian Sacramentary (8th c.)

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can.
