Quotes and Notes

"... if we are following Jesus with a cross on our shoulder, there is only one place to which we are going; the place of crucifixion...Our 'cross', then, is not an irritable husband or a cantankerous wife. It is instead the symbol of death to the self."

- John Stott (1921-2011), The Cross of Christ

"We instinctively tend to limit for whom we exert ourselves. We do it for people like us, and for people whom we like. Jesus will have none of that. By depicting a Samaritan helping a Jew, Jesus could not have found a more forceful way to say that anyone at all in need - regardless of race, politics, class, and religion - is your neighbour. Not everyone is your brother or sister in faith, but everyone is your neighbor, and you must love your neighbor."

- Timothy Keller, Generous Justice

We are really glad you could be with us this morning. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask our pastor or one of the elders. They would be glad to help you in any way they can. You can call or reach us at: www.clarksvillepca.org.
